VALUABLE SOUVENIRS

Received From Manila at the Navy Department.

ONE IS THE OFFICIAL FLAG.

It Was Hauled Down After the Surrender of the City.

COLORS OF A CAPTURED SHIP.

These Relics of the Campaign in the Philippines Will Be Transmitted to the Naval Academy Where Such Trophies Are Displayed.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Two valuable souvenirs of the Manila campaign were received at the navy department. One is "the official flag of Manila," sewed to which was a linen memorandum showing that the flag was "hailed down Aug. 13, 1898, at 5:40 p. m., by Flag Lieutenant Brumby and signal boys Stanton and Ferguson, from the flagship Olympia, after the surrender of the city to the combined naval and military forces of the United States."

The other souvenir was "the flag of the Spanish armed transport Cebu, captured at Manila, Aug. 13, 1898."

These flags were turned over to the chief clerk of the navy department for transmission to the naval academy, where all such trophies of the American navy are stored and displayed.

Merritt's Report Received.
Washington, Sept. 29.—General Merritt's report of the battle of Manila has been received at the war department and will be made public in a few days. Along with the report of General Merritt and appendixes on the land battles at Manila, General Greene brought to Washington the report of Admiral Dewey, which is to be sent to Paris for the information of the American peace commissioners on the political importance of the islands, character of the people and other matters that may properly be regarded as having a bearing upon the disposition of the islands.

General Graham Remembered.
Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Sept. 29.—This was the sixty-fourth anniversary of Major General Graham's birth, and it also marked his retirement from the United States regular service as a brigadier general. He will, however, continue his command in the volunteer service. To mark the day the members of his staff presented him a silver loving cup appropriately inscribed. In his response to the speech General Graham gave out the information that the corps will soon be on the move to Cuba.

In No Hurry.
Washington, Sept. 29.—The movement of troops from the United States to Cuba may not be hurried by the evacuation of Manzanillo, on the southern coast, which it was reported would occur on October 6. A telegram has been received from General Lawton saying that he has three regiments at Santiago, available for garrison duty, and probably one of these will be sent to Manzanillo. Other troops at Santiago will be used for garrison duty if early evacuations occur.

Transport Overdue.
San Francisco, Sept. 29.—The non-arrival of the transport Senator is beginning to cause a little uneasiness. She is now out 35 days from Manila. The steamer Zealandia, which left Manila two days after the Senator, was caught in a typhoon and had to put in Nagasaki on Aug. 30 for repairs. The transport Colon came across from Manila in 28 days, the City of Peking in 23, the City of Sydney in 24 and the China in 23 days.

Fire In Her Bunkers.
New York, Sept. 29.—The United States transport Massachusetts, Captain Robinson, from Santiago, arrived and proceeded to an anchorage off Liberty Island. While at Santiago the coal in the Massachusetts' bunkers took fire, and it was found necessary to jettison 100 tons. A portion of this coal was taken on board again. On going to sea the fire again broke out in the fire bunkers and smoldered for three days.

Sick From Inhuman Treatment.
New York, Sept. 29.—Mr. Ventor Von Hollenstein, an American citizen and a member of the German Red Cross society, who had been in prison for several months in Havana, charged with complicity in the insurrection of the Cubans, was among the passengers of the City of Washington. He was released during the first part of this month. He is crippled and sick from the harsh treatment he received.

Kansas Troopers Home.
Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 29.—The Twenty-first Kansas regiment of volunteers arrived here from Lexington, Ky. The first section carried 72 sick, 22 of whom had typhoid fever. Coffee and sandwiches were served the soldiers by the citizens and later the regiment, commanded by Colonel Fitch, marched through the streets to camp.

Awaiting Instructions.
Washington, Sept. 29.—The Philippine delegate, Agoncillo, and his secretary and interpreter, Mr. Lopez, took no steps in the execution of the mission on which they came to Washington. Agoncillo said through his interpreter that he had cabled to the home government, asking authority to solicit an interview with the president and requesting full instructions. He had received no response thus far.

Alger at Washington.
Washington, Sept. 29.—Secretary Alger has returned to Washington. He came to the war department immediately after breakfast and was soon besieged by a number of persons who had been waiting for his return. The secretary looked much improved by his trip, although it was filled with hard work after he left Detroit. Later he made a verbal report to the president on the inspection of the army camps, which he has just concluded. He was occupied with the president for two and a half hours. During the interview Secretary Long came over from the navy department and joined the party in the cabinet room.

Favors Retention.
Washington, Sept. 29.—Paymaster General Stanton has received a private letter from Major Charles McClure, chief paymaster at Manila. He says of the Philippines that the United States should by all means retain possession of those fertile islands. The people of that country, he states, have been misgoverned for 300 years, with no opportunity to develop or improve themselves.

Camp Wikoff Depleted.
New York, Sept. 29.—The departure of troops from Camp Wikoff continues and now there are only three regiments in the camp, which a month ago had 25,000 men. The first cavalry got away Wednesday. They are assigned to the department of Dakota, and the regiment will be distributed among the different forts in the department.

Ohio Boys Die at Camp Poland.
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 29.—Privates Charles E. Ausmond, company M, and Joe Goodfrye, company C, Second Ohio, died in the division hospital at Camp Poland. They were suffering with typhoid fever. The Sixth Virginia and the North Carolina regiments, both colored, have had serious disagreements, and they were separated.

First Cavalry Departs.
New York, Sept. 29.—The first cavalry arrived from Montauk Point and was taken in ferry boats and lighters from Long Island City around the battery to the railroad yards of the New York Central on North river. This railroad has the contract to carry the troops west to stations in the departments of Colorado and Dakota.

Letter Hospital to Close.
Chattanooga, Sept. 29.—Letter hospital, the largest general hospital at Camp Thomas during the summer, will be closed within the next week or 10 days. The number of sick men at the park has so greatly decreased that the Sternberg hospital is sufficient for all needs.

Death of an Ohio Soldier.
Philadelphia, Sept. 29.—There were two deaths among the soldiers in the hospitals of this city, due to typhoid fever, one being Guy Connell, company B, Tenth Ohio, who died at the Jefferson hospital. The body will be taken home for interment.

General Merritt In Egypt.
Port Said, Egypt, Sept. 29.—Major General Merritt, United States army, Major Strother, Aide-de-Camp Hall and Captain Mott Howell, the general secretary, passed here on board the steamer Arcadia on their way to Marseilles and Paris.

To Be Mustered Out.
Washington, Sept. 29.—General Greeley, chief signal officer, has recommended that four companies of the volunteer signal service be mustered out of the military service with 60 days furlough, there being no further use for their services.

May Float the Merrimac.
New York, Sept. 29.—Captain Fred Sharp of the Merritt Wrecking company arrived here from Havana. He thinks the collier Merrimac, sunk by Hobson in Santiago harbor, can be floated.

"But She Is First In the Hearts," Etc.
Speaking of war candidates, wouldn't Miss Helen Gould get a rousing non-partisan vote if there were any office in the nation for which a woman could be nominated and elected?—New York Press.

HANDLED WITH GLOVES

Is Chicago Platform by New Jersey Democrats.

A SPECIFIC INDORSEMENT

Is Refused by the Majority of the Delegates In State Convention—Silver Men Promise to Support the Entire Ticket.

Trenton, Sept. 29.—The Democratic state convention nominated for governor of New Jersey, Elvin W. Crane, the prosecutor of Essex county.

A platform which in a measure supports the Democratic national platform was adopted. The convention, however, without debate, defeated a proposition to specifically indorse the platform adopted by the Chicago convention in 1896.

This for a few moments caused considerable turmoil, but the band struck up a lively tune and finally the silver men accepted the situation gracefully.

Later, when Mr. Crane had been nominated, Senator Daly and Clarence Atkinson, both of whom were special favorites of the silver men and were candidates for the nomination, mounted the platform and promised to do all they could to insure Mr. Crane's election.

A feature of the convention was the presence of a delegation of colored men, who had called to pledge support to the convention's nominee.

German Baptists.

St. Louis, Sept. 29.—The triennial conference of the German Baptists of the United States and Canada has been concluded after a session extending over a week. It has been decided to meet in 1901 at Berlin, Ont. The Young People's society of the denomination elected general officers for this society as follows: President, Dr. D. B. Stumpf of Buffalo; vice presidents, Henry Donner of Pittsburgh and Rev. T. Wegner of New York; corresponding secretary, Rev. Henry Gleiss of Pittsburgh.

How Belgium Got In.

Washington, Sept. 29.—United States Consul Morris, at Ghent, attributes to the concession secured by Belgium for a railroad from Peking to Han Kau the recent complication which have led to England's protest. Belgium was selected by China as a neutral nation to receive this concession. The Belgian syndicate turned to the French capitalists for funds, while the Russo-Chinese bank acted as financial agent. This is the occasion of England's protest.

Result of an Old Grudge.

Whitesburg, Ky., Sept. 29.—John Osborne fired two balls into the body of John Wright, killing him instantly. A grudge had existed between the men for many years. Lately both had been paying attention to a widow in this vicinity. They met at her home by chance, with the above result. The Wright family are in hot pursuit of the murderer, he fleeing to the mountains after the deed.

EX-SECRETARY THOMAS F. BAYARD.
Later he studied law. He was admitted to the bar in 1851, and two years later was appointed United States district attorney.

In 1868 Mr. Bayard was elected to represent the people of Delaware in the senate, securing re-election in 1875 and again in 1881. He was appointed secretary of state during President Cleveland's first term and during the second Cleveland regime he was sent to England as ambassador.

Noted Counterfeiter Arrested.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Chief Wilkie of the secret service bureau received a telegram from Operator Forsythe at El Paso, Tex., announcing the important capture of an alleged counterfeiter, who is charged with flooding the Mexican border with bogus United States notes. The man is George D. Fontaine, and when he was placed in custody at El Paso there was found $5,000 in five, 10, 20 and 50-dollar notes, including a counterfeit of the new $5 silver certificate. All were printed by the photographic process, with the seals and numbers touched up with colors.

Emile Zola are about to be sold to satisfy a judgment of 30,000 francs obtained against him by three handwriting experts who recently won a libel suit growing out of the Dreyfus case against the author. The experts have refused the offer of M. Octave Mirabeau to be responsible for the amount.

A DISGRACEFUL SCENE

Pugilists McCoy and Corbett Come Together.

FORMER KICKS THE LATTER.

Accidental Meeting of the Plug-Uglies In Lobby of a New York Hotel Results In Action as Well as Words.

New York, Sept. 29.—The pugilists "Kid" McCoy and James J. Corbett, whose match has been broken off, met in the Gilsey House lobby, when McCoy knocked Corbett's hat off and then, while Corbett was held by his friends, kicked Corbett in the groin.

He then ran out of a side door, away from the crowd. Corbett was taken to his room and a doctor summoned.

Corbett, his manager, George Considine, and Al Smith ate lunch together in the Gilsey House cafe, finishing about 1 o'clock. They then walked out through the lobby and in the Broadway entrance met Dave Nugent, of the Hawthorne Athletic club, who joined them. In one side of the entrance were McCoy, William Gray of the Hawthorne Athletic club and six other men. They were talking excitedly when Considine saluted Gray and Corbett walked up to do likewise. Gray, after acknowledging the salute, said to Corbett:

"I don't think you want to fight."

"What's that?" inquired Corbett.

Gray repeated the remark and Corbett loudly said that he was ready to fight McCoy anywhere and at any time.

"I'll fight him now and right here on the street," said Corbett.

McCoy, who had been listening, stepped up to Corbett as the latter spoke and knocked off his hat.

Several of Corbett's friends, wishing no disturbance, held him, and just as they seized him by the arms and shoulders McCoy delivered a kick at Corbett which struck him in the groin.

Corbett leaned over in pain, unable to try to get at McCoy, who, as soon as he had kicked Corbett, ran back to the side entrance of the hotel.

Corbett tried to follow but he could not do so, and he was persuaded to go to his room. A doctor was immediately summoned.

A large crowd had gathered at the first rumor that the prizefighters were in the hotel together, and by the time the report that they had gone into a fight had been spread, which was in a few minutes, the hotel was besieged.

The crowd was in a state of excitement about the alleged fight, but neither of the pugilists was seen by the people. McCoy disappeared early.

She declared herself to be Catherine Wilbur, widow, of Los Angeles, Cal., and said she had come here to visit a daughter who is living in London, but she declined to give her daughter's address, and when asked for the names of friends at Los Angeles she could only give the name of a Mr. Willicut and refused to furnish his address. The woman also said she had never been to Bridgeport, Conn. She is about 50 years of age, of heavy build and stolid looking.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Department officials confirmed the statement that they had taken steps to have arrested and held for examination the woman who landed at Liverpool, supposed to be Dr. Nancy Gullford, charged with being connected with the murder of Emma Gill at Bridgeport, Conn. This action was taken at the request of the governor of Connecticut.

That Investigation Commission should never let up until it finds out who is responsible for the appointment of the dog doctor to a position in the medical department of the army. The people want to know the facts, no matter who is hurt.

EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL MOLONEY, of Illinois, just back from Porto Rico, jumps onto the Surgeon General Dr. Huidekoper, the dog doctor, and declares his chief occupation is "whisky drinking." The administration has ordered Huidekoper back to Washington and he will probably be allowed to resign. The question naturally arises, why was a dog and horse doctor placed in such a responsible position when there are so many eminent surgeons who could have been secured?

DIDN'T GET HIM.

Jailer At Falmouth Tried To Work a Trick Here Wednesday To Get a Prisoner.

Wednesday morning Chief of Police Donovan received a telegram from the chief of Falmouth asking him to hold Ed. Rust, who was arrested here early this week on suspicion of having stolen a horse and buggy. The telegram stated also that the Falmouth officer would arrive here during the day. He didn't show up, but a man claiming to be the jailer at Falmouth, did arrive.

Instead of going to Chief Donovan, however, the Falmouth jailer hunted up a lawyer, and after a consultation went to Squire Grant, before whom the warrant for Rust had been sworn out, and wanted the Squire to turn Rust over to him.

The Falmouth officer at first claimed that the horse and buggy had not been stolen; that the horse belonged to Rust and the buggy to Rust's sister. Later, however, he produced a warrant issued at Falmouth charging Rust with stealing the horse and vehicle.

The Falmouth officer was evidently scheming to get the reward of $50 that the State pays for the conviction of every horse thief. He had to return home, however, without his man as the court refused to turn Rust over to him.

Rust is still in jail. Policeman Wallace, who took the horse and buggy out through the country on a trip of investigation wired this morning from Cynthia that he would return home to-day.

REPUBLICAN ROW.

State Official Resigns Because His Boss Wanted to Control His Political Actions.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 28.—Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture Faulkner has resigned.

The resignation is the result of political differences between Faulkner and his chief, Commissioner Moore. Faulkner says that Moore undertook to control him in all political matters and became offended because he would not support John W. Lewis for Appellate Judge.

The tip is out that Commissioner Moore will appoint his wife to succeed Faulkner, whose salary is $1,200.

Faulkner will be given a berth by Collector Sapp at Louisville.

OUTLOOK FOR WHEAT.

What Ware & Leland, of Chicago, Say of the Crop in This and Foreign Countries.

Ware & Leland, of Chicago, in their weekly letter on the crop outlook says: "A political economist in Siberia reports for 1,400 miles east of Moscow the crops are very poor, and that a space of 500 miles square of this territory the crops, even grass, are a total failure; that in Samara, which is twice as large as Belgium, farmers will not raise enough to supply one-fifth of the population; that this stricken district is the finest spring wheat and cereal section in Russia, and generally has a large exportable surplus. A Russian official says Russian provinces will require to import 80,000,000 bushels of grain, and he cannot see how wheat can remain down in price; that stocks the world over have been completely depleted, and in Russia are completely exhausted. The Corn Trade News says—more accurate information obtainable—reports only a few parts of Russia will have a large crop; that the general average will not exceed one-half, and quality be inferior, caused by fog and excessive dampness; that winter wheat is the worst crop of all and very little is available; that peasants are not satisfied with local prices, and autumn shipments will doubtless be light, and this will likely hold good of all grain. Russian shipments of late continue decreasing, and are only about one-third the average last season. America is exporting more than double all other countries. Late cable says they will not have thirty millions to export. Last year their exports exceeded 112,000,000 bushels. Budapest, the Minneapolis of Europe, reports an advance of 8 cents per bushel in wheat recently, with an urgent milling demand.

"An Odessa cable says: 'Do not put any faith in good crop reports, they are colored to influence the market.' Evidently the general plan of Wall street and Northwest millers and Exchange traders this year has been to 'side track' all bullish news, and doubly ventilate anything bearish.

"The past 100 days, exporters have, apparently, sold on an average of thirty days ahead, and reported no export demand, believing Northwest receipts will increase, and further depress the markets. Exports since July 1st have been forty million bushels, against about fifty million bushels last year. Primary receipts same time only about 48,000,000 bushels, against about 57,000,000 in 1897, and 54,000,000 in 1896. Cash wheat commands a premium all over the world. The flour market is stronger, and foreign purchases are at full prices. The visible supply was never half so small, per capita, while the export movement was never larger, considering supplies to ship from.

"Seldom, if ever, has stagnation ruled so long without a wild burst of speculation. Performances like those prevailing of late have no relation with sanity. Sentiment appears to supersede logic. We look for a radical change in sentiment when the flush of marketings begin to lessen, and the large demand becomes more noticeable."

THE BATTLESHIP FUND.

People of Kentucky Slow in Responding to the Appeal—Something Must Be Done Soon.

Louisville Courier-Journal: "The commissioners who have been intrusted with the task of raising a fund to provide the silver service for the battleship Kentucky have found that practically no results have been obtained in the matter of popular subscriptions outside of Louisville. The consequence is that this city, which expected to lead in contributions to the $10,000 required, must now assume the entire burden, if necessary.

"We need say nothing as to the patriotic object of the fund. It is an obligation upon the courtesy and generosity of the whole State, and one that every Kentuckian should be proud to assume. It is a charge which the people of Indiana gladly undertook when the state ship bearing the name of the Hoosier State went into commission. Any other State in the Union would be overjoyed to have the honor of making the donation upon the same condition. Only last year the city of Nashville gave a service to the gunboat bearing its name, and the State of Washington is even now raising money to supply a table set for the cruiser Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship. Every city in that young Commonwealth is taking part in the movement, and Washingtonians declare the Olympia shall have the finest plate in the navy. We shall see if Louisville, an older and a better town, will permit herself to be outstripped in this expression of hospitality and pride.

"In this great year of naval glory let an inland State, but a fighting one, and one which has supplied many of the heroes who have shed luster upon our sea service, show how it appreciates the honor paid it by having a namesake in the list of the world's mightiest war vessels."

Louisville Dispatch: "It is expected that the Kentucky will be placed in commission early next year, and the time for procuring the service is short. It will take some time to prepare the designs and have the service made. About $10,000 is needed for the work. Every State which has had a battleship named after it has made a handsome present to the ship, and it would be an indelible reproach on the name of Kentucky if she failed to equal her sister States in this respect."

Maysville people who wish to contribute anything to this fund can leave their donation at any of the banks or at most any of the drugstores, and the money will be reported. Maysville should help this patriotic movement along. It won't do to have Louisville claim all the honor.

Fever Stricken and Starving Soldiers at Camp Wikoff Given the Water Cure.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Mrs. E. C. Allis spent a fortnight at Camp Wikoff as a volunteer aid in the hospitals.

"None," she remarked to-day, "who were not present in camp day and night could fully understand the atrocity of the absolutely unnecessary sufferings to which the patients are subjected."

She penned an open letter to the President, in which she said in part:

"A doctor named Lee was placed in absolute charge of an extensive hospital. The accommodations, I should judge, were for nearly 200 men. This man was a faddist, and practiced the water cure only, and that upon fever-stricken, starved, emaciated men. His treatment for all diseases was the same—a glass of ice water every two hours—for typhoid, dysentery, jaundice, peritonitis and tonsillitis. It was the subject of bitter comment among the nurses, families of sick men and those who, like myself, were observers. Finally he was asked to resign, but the question arises, Who put him there, and who is responsible for the deaths of the men under his care?"

"I have the word of two nurses who declare one young man could have been saved had he been allowed some nourishment or stimulant 24 hours before he died."

"I had in charge the body of a young man whose parents wished it sent home. Thirty-six hours after his death the body was taken from a rough pine box, such as they call coffins, in exactly the state it was carried from the ward, with nothing on but a plaid flannel shirt, stained from the hemorrhages of the day of his death, no effort at embalming having been made. Is this the way to care for the men who left home at their country's call, endured untold hardships and died of starvation and neglect, to bury them in their native land as though they had been criminals?"

"Who is responsible for this?"

When the announcement was made a few days ago that Col. Cody (Buffalo Bill) was quite ill in Kansas City, the news was telegraphed throughout the world. On the next day telegrams of regret began to arrive from all sections, many of them from noted people. Among them was one from General Miles, of the U. S. Army, who said: "I wish to express my deep regret on account of your illness; my great faith in your fortitude and strength, and earnestly hope for your speedy recovery."

In an interview at Cincinnati Major Hutchins says: "Notwithstanding the precautions of every kind that I took, with the best care of myself and in the light of my experience in the Civil war, I contracted the fever, and I did not drink a drop of water that had not been boiled and filtered. The fever was there awaiting us, and there was no escaping it. Out of General Kent's staff of thirty-five men my clerk, Mr. J. Banks Durrett, of Mason County, with me here now, was the only one who was not taken ill."

THE Sharpsburg fair began Wednesday.

COMER-HICKEY.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday noon when Mr. Patrick Comer and Miss Kathryne Hickey were united in marriage. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hickey, of Mayslick. The rooms had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with an endless variety of plants and beautiful flowers, and presented a dainty appearance. It was 11 o'clock when the happy couple, attended by Mr. John Comer, of Maysville, and Miss Mary E. Fury, of Millcreek, took their places, and, surrounded by their admiring friends and relatives, were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by the Rev. John Hickey.

After the ceremony the happy couple preceded their friends to the dining room where an elegant wedding dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Comer were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents. The groom is one of Mason County's most prosperous farmers and is a popular and worthy young man. The bride is an estimable and lovely young lady. Both have a host of friends who wish them all future happiness.

LAST OF THE SEASON.

Final Bulletin of the Weather Bureau on the Condition of Kentucky Crops.

Rains have kept the soil in excellent condition for fall plowing, but slightly delayed harvesting. However, nearly all of the important crops have been successfully housed. Pastures show great improvement in all sections, and late vegetables have also been benefited.

Grasshoppers are so numerous in the western counties that wheat sowing has been nearly suspended.

As all crops in the State are either harvested or so far advanced as to be beyond danger from frost, this bulletin will be the last for the present season.

The director returns thanks to the correspondents of this section for their intelligent and faithful co-operation.

Don't forget that next Tuesday is registration day.

MURPHY, the jeweler.

WHEN a man owns a blooded horse he is always careful of its health. He looks after its diet and is particular that the feeding shall be regular and right. While he is doing this it is likely as not that he is himself suffering from some disease or disorder. When the trouble gets so bad that he cannot work, he will begin to give himself the care he gave the horse at the start. Good pure, rich, red blood is the best insurance against disease of any kind. Almost all diseases come from impure or impoverished blood. Keep the blood pure and strong and disease can find no foothold. That is the principle upon which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery works. It cleanses, purifies and enriches the blood, puts and keeps the whole body in perfect order; makes appetite good, digestion strong, assimilation perfect. It brings ruddy, virile health. It builds up solid, wholesome flesh (not fat) when, from any cause, reduced below the healthy standard.

WITH BLOODHOUNDS

Officers and Citizens are Scouring the Country For the Bank Robbers. Flora, Ind., Sept. 29.—The excitement over the bank robbery has increased, although there are no new developments since the arrest of the suspect with the name of James Andrew Dignoms tattooed on his arm, and who was hurried to Delphi to escape lynching. The money found on him has been carefully examined, as well as his blood-stained clothes, and he is believed to be one of the gang. Four other suspects were released.

All the officers in the county and hundred of citizens are scouring the country with bloodhounds for the robbers, who got away with $5,000 in gold and $7,000 in currency. There is no run on the bank. Depositors will lose nothing. Cachier Leon is still alive, and the physicians are unable as yet to tell whether he will survive the effects of the shots in his head and breast.

New Daughter of the Confederacy.
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Miss Lucy Hill, an examiner in the office of the civil service commission, is the new daughter of the Confederacy. Her southern friends have conferred this honor upon her since the death of Miss Winnie Davis. Miss Hill is a native of Virginia and comes from one of the oldest and most aristocratic families in the south. She is a distant relative of General Fitzhugh Lee.

Fears of a Marine Disaster.
San Francisco, Sept. 29.—It is thought by shipping men here that the vessels now on the way from St. Michaels to southern ports will suffer from the storm reported by the British man-of-war Amphion. The Bertha is reported to have much treasure on board, but there is no way of telling the day she sailed for this city. She went from St. Michaels to Norton's sound, near Kotzebue.

New Incorporations.
Columbus, O., Sept. 29.—The Strong, Carlisle and Turney company, Cleveland, certificate of decree of court changing name of the Strong, Carlisle and Hammond company; the Union Saloonkeepers' Beneficial association of Dayton, O.; the S. P. Chase council, No. 457, of the National Union, Cincinnati; the Medina Telephone company, Medina, capital stock $20,000.

New Jersey Democrats.
Trenton, Sept. 29.—The Democratic state convention to nominate a candidate for governor was called to order by Chairman E. O. Price. The house was crowded with delegates, which numbered nearly 1,100. In calling the convention to order Chairman Price recommended William Gourley of Paterson as chairman of the convention. This choice was ratified.

McCoy Assaults Corbett.
New York, Sept. 29.—James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy met in the corridor of the Gilsey House and entered into a dispute as to the prospects for a fight. Each called the other some pretty hard names, and McCoy kicked Corbett in the groin. The men were separated by bystanders.

Upheld the War Revenue Act.
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Judge Schowalter of the United States circuit court upheld the constitutionality of the provision in the war revenue act requiring brokers to file a memorandum of their sales. He dismissed the habeas corpus proceedings instituted by James Nicol, the board of trade operator, who was fined $500 for violating the law.

Have Not Deserted Marchand.
Paris, Sept. 29.—M. Trouillot, minister of the colonies, says it is not true that Major Marchand has been abandoned. Up to the present the French government has only the British version of the major's occupation of Fashado, and no steps will be taken in the matter until the French officer's reports are received.

St. Louis Wants McKinley.
Washington, Sept. 29.—National Committeeman Kerens of Missouri had a second interview with President McKinley in order to prevail upon the president to visit St. Louis while on his western trip. The president stated, however, that he has not definitely settled his plans further than already has been outlined.

Cattle Affected With Black Tongue.
Cincinnati, Sept. 29.—Edward Kritzing was arrested for offering for sale at the stock yards cattle pronounced by the inspector to be affected with black tongue. The cattle were taken out of the city to be killed. They are said to have been secured from a farmer near Burlington, Ky. The stock yards will be fumigated.

A Possible Coal Field.
East Liverpool, O., Sept. 29.—The Ohio and Pennsylvania Coal company, having secured an option on about 1,000 acres of coal land lying along Little Yellow creek, three to four miles southeast of Salineville, are sinking several test shafts preparatory to closing a deal for the entire coal privilege.

Ohio Bankers In Convention.
Akron, O., Sept. 29.—There was a large attendance at the opening of the eighth annual convention of the Ohio Bankers' association here. G. P. Griffith, vice president of the Citizens' National bank of Cincinnati, president of the association, read his annual address.

Comedy Off the Stage.

It was only a byplay at the theater the other evening, but it was entertaining to a limited portion of the audience.

Behind the little lady with a diminutive but that had its chief beauty in its daintiness sat a member of the sex with amazonian proportions and voluble tongue. In a brief intermission of chattering to those about her she happened to look down and espy the pretty headgear which was a clear foot below her range of vision with the stage. But it was a tempting opportunity.

"Will you kindly remove your hat?" asked the one in the rear as she leaned forward and spoke in a noisy whisper.

"Certainly," answered the one in front as she made rather a vicious plunge for the anchoring pin. "I will 'kindly' take off my hat. Will you kindly stop your talking and permit us to hear this play?"

For full five minutes there was unbroken silence, but it was a greater self restraint than the large woman could endure, and her annoying whisperings again began. Suddenly the one in front stuck the little hat upon the very summit of her head and pinned it there. It seemed to have grown taller and of greater circumference and looked just like a defiant challenge worked into artistic millinery.

The large woman was too mad to talk, and there was suppressed tittering while those around beamed on the little woman and were sore tempted to give her a hand by way of applause.—Detroit Free Press.

"Shabby Old Coat."

West Point was for the last ten years of his life the summer home of General Scott, of whom Mrs. Sherwood, in her "Reminiscences," pleasantly gossips:

The hero of the Mexican war always, on the Fourth of July, wore his old military coat, the one in which he rode into the Mexican capital "on top of a picnic," as he used to say. "Very shabby old coat, madam, very shabby old coat!" the gratified old man would exclaim as he felt a lady's hand laid gently on his army as she asked to touch the sacred cloth. He wore the coat on many historic days and was pleased to shoulder his cane and fight his battles over again.

Once, while telling the story of Arnold's treason and pointing out from the hotel piazza the spots associated with the traitor, he said, referring to Mrs. Arnold's devotion to her husband, "She clung like ivy to a worthless thing."

Spanish Laziness.

Labor, to Spanish pride, was the badge of inferiority, to be escaped in every possible way, says Henry C. Lea in The Atlantic. This national aversion to labor manifested itself in an indolence which rendered the pretense of working almost illusory. Dormer tells us of his compatriots that they did not work as in other lands. A few hours a day, and this intermittently, were expected to provide for them as much as the incessant activity of the foreigner. To these drawbacks on productive industry is to be added the multitude of feast days, which Navarrete estimates at about one-third of the working days, rising to one-half at the critical season of the harvests—feast days which, according to Archbishop Carranza, were spent in a debauchery rendering them especially welcome to the devil. Under such conditions it was impossible for Spain to withstand the competition of the foreigner.

Governor Smith Shot.
Santa Monica, Cal., Sept. 29.—While Governor Smith of the Pacific branch of the National Soldiers' home near this place was coming to his headquarters Albert G. Bradley, who has been an inmate of the home for five years, came up behind him and shot at him five times, one ball taking effect under the right shoulder blade, one above the right hip and one through the right arm. The surgeons think the wounds are not fatal. There is no external bleeding, but fears of internal injury are entertained. At times Bradley has acted strangely, and he is thought to be crazy.

The Strike Ended.
Brockton, Mass., Sept. 29.—In pursuance of the ultimatum issued by the Lesters' Protective union at Brockton, that if the lasting machine companies did not withdraw agents which they had put into factories here to take the place of strikers, all the lasters in this section would be ordered out, the strike was extended in all directions, men abandoning lasting machines in shops all over southeastern Massachusetts.
